

Fourth Sunday in Lent
March 26, 2006; Worship at 10:00 A.M.

Reflection: "All consciousness separates; but in dreams we put on the likeness of that more universal, truer, more eternal [person] dwelling in the darkness of primordial night." - C. G. Jung

"As the prelude begins, please conclude your conversations and quietly prepare for worship."

Introit

Call to Worship (A variation on a call to worship offered at the TAMFS Conference, Atlanta, Georgia, March 2005.)

One: The God of Heaven has made a home on earth.

ALL: Jesus dwells among us and is one of us.

One: Highest in all creation, Jesus lives among the least,

ALL: Jesus journeys with the lost and welcomes the weary.

One: Come now all who thirst

ALL: And drink the water of life.

One: Come now all who hunger?

ALL: And be filled with the goodness of God.

One: Come now all who ponder

ALL: And be blessed by a grace that is ever free.

 Hymn #469 Morning Has Broken

Prayer of Confession (unison)

O God of all creation, who comes to us in so many ways; lead us in your way of love and fill us with your Spirit. Choose us to bring good news to the poor, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and set free the oppressed. It is for these and more reasons we ask forgiveness, not only that we may feel the peace of your grace, but so that we may be better able to serve you and our brothers and sisters with full and generous hearts. We welcome your new direction and creation, and we pray for the knowledge of thy will, only, and the power to carry that out. Amen.
