

Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time
June 25, 2006; Worship at 10:00 A.M.

“What can we gain by sailing to the moon if we are not able to cross the abyss that separates us from ourselves? This is the most important of all voyages of discovery, and without it, all the rest are not only useless, but disastrous...” - Thomas Merton

“As the prelude begins, please conclude your conversations and quietly prepare for worship.”

Introit

Call to Worship

One: Almighty God, we do not sail these seas of life alone,

All: For you are always with us, guiding the journey.

One: When, at times, we feel lost, alone, or deserted,

All: Help us to remember that you are with us and in all those around us. Grant us the vision to see you always.

* Hymn #469 Morning Has Broken

Prayer of Confession (Unison)

Lord, make us instruments of thy peace. Where there is hatred, let us sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is discord, union; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light; where there is sadness, joy. Grant that we may not so much seek to be consoled as to console; to be understood as to understand; to be loved, as to love. For it is in giving that we receive; it is in pardoning that we are pardoned; and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life. Amen.

Silent Confession

Choral Response

Declaration of Forgiveness:

Know that you are forgiven and be at peace.

* Hymn # 322

*Spirit of the Living God, fall afresh on me.
Spirit of the Living God, fall afresh on me.
Melt me, mold me, fill me, use me.
Spirit of the Living God, fall afresh on me.*
